FORTY-FIRST ANNUAL MEETING

The Forty-first Anniversary of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions was held on Tuesday, May 11th, 1915, in the First Reformed Church in New Brunswick, N. J. The day was most lovely, bright and clear, and the church gaily decorated with white lilacs, wild columbine and hawthorne. From the galleries streamed the flags of all nations, and from the pulpit the Stars and Stripes.

There was a goodly company from far and near to listen to the words of welcome given in graceful wise by Mrs. J. Campbell White. Then followed the President with her message, which was contained in these words, "Lord what wilt thou have me to do." It was with aching hearts we heard of the lonely missionary who mourns the loss of her husband in the wrecked "Lusitania"—dear Mrs. Beattie. May the Lord be her shield and comforter at this time!

The statement of the Treasurer showed that the total receipts of the year were $88,074.55, the amount paid over to Synod Board being from $2,500 to $3,000 less than our appropriations. The Treasurer appealed to the loyalty of the women to make up the deficiency. Mrs. Baldwin described the joy of the missionaries over the arrival of the Sewing Guild boxes—the many uses to which the contents were put—and ended by asking for the thousand petticoats still needed to be sent in by fall. Dr. Searle presented the list of managers to be nominated by the women present, and the list was ratified as read.

"The Three Who Learned How," Miss Bessie M. Ogsbury told us, were the missionaries who had received "power," the Chinese women whose Christian education was beginning to tell so wonderfully, and the American Christian woman whose opportunity is almost endless.

The missionaries were presented by Mrs. Burrell. Mrs. John Scudder was the first, and every one rose almost involuntarily in honor and respect for the elect lady. How many years of faithful service and growth in every direction she has experienced!

Then Mrs. Calverley, M.D., of Arabia, described some of the opportunities of work among the Moslem women—one could see the group of veiled women, of every condition, from jewels and silk to rags, all sitting on the mud floor to pray. Mrs. De Pree brought a greeting from China and a request for our prayers and more helpers from one of the Chinese women.

Mrs. Barney of Arabia and Miss Moulton followed—the latter sang delightfully two Japanese hymns, and asked our prayers for Ferris Seminary, in the service of which she has spent twenty-five years. It was said of her that she had awakened the soul of the Japanese girl by her music.

The object of the offering, "The Enlargement of the Girls' Normal School at Chittoor," was presented by Mrs. Henry J. Scudder, who told of Mr. and Mrs. Beattie's great interest in the school, which helped girls to be self-respecting and self-supporting and supplied teachers and Bible women to the surrounding missions.

After the offering was taken we had the great pleasure of listening to our beloved physician, Dr. Ida S. Scudder of India. She spoke of the loss sustained this year by the Arcot Mission from whose roll of workers five have been taken. She pleaded for a large vision of the world's need, that we might stand with Christ on the mountain top and be filled with His compassion for the multitude. We were told that $10,000 is still required to complete the sum of $34,000 to be raised by Dr. Scudder for the much needed new hospital with one hundred beds—and private wards.

We know the self-effacing lives of our medical missionaries. Let us pray that some heart may be touched to give this sum.

"Prayers of love like raindrops fall,
Tears of pity are cooling dew,
And dear to the heart of our Lord are all
Who suffer like Him in the good they do."

After a beautiful luncheon, to which all were invited by the Rev. Mr. Hogan, pastor of the church, in the chapel adjoining, the congregation reassembled. A most interesting address on "Some African Women," awakening new sympathy for dark sisters, was given by Miss Jean K. Mackenzie. Miss Lawrence presented the object of the afternoon offering, suggesting that we raise the $1,500 needed for the enlargement of the Girls' Normal Training School at Chittoor, as a Beattie Memorial.

From Miss S. Hiwali of India, a student in America, came a valuable testimonial to the life and work of the foreign missionary. She spoke of the difficulties they had to surmount and of the way they both lived and preached Christ. She presented in herself a charming proof of the value of Christian schools for girls in the East.

Mrs. Douglas expressed the thanks of the managers for the gracious hospitality of the churches of New Brunswick and to all who contributed in any way to the success of the occasion.

Mrs. George Sherwood Eddy gave a picture of the women of China holding out pleading hands to their more fortunate sisters in America, begging them to send the Light to those who sit in darkness. The last hymn, "O Zion Haste," gave a finishing touch to a fine program and a wonderful day of privilege.

"For ah, another year, another year
I'll set my life in richer, stronger soil
And prune the weeds away that creep too near,
And watch and tend with never-ceasing toil,
Another year, ah yes, another year."

LOUISE CHAMBERS KNOX,
Recording Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

We walk along the ways of memory of the past year with the world-wide sombre shadows cast by the grimness of war, and the intense interest aroused for those in need should sooner or later have its manifestation in the work of sending the Gospel to thousands—

“With none to tell them of the Saviour’s dying,
Or the life He died for them to win.”

Through the year’s checkered experiences, with financial depression and uncertainty, we can look back with thankfulness on what has been accomplished, and can look forward with hopefulness to another year of consecrated effort. If God bestows the blessing for which we pray, the work will cost more, indeed, its growth is often embarrassing by reason of the inability of our too limited number of workers to cope with it.

We report eight new societies, and two reorganized and nine disbanded. During the coming year the Board plans to augment the membership of the auxiliaries by introducing a Home Department. Its measure of success is dependent upon the individual society’s interested activity.

The “signs of promise” indicated by the attendance and earnest spirit of the Missionary Unions are for increased efficiency. The six Unions in the Middle West had the pleasure and benefit of the presence and messages from our treasurer, Miss Gertrude Dodd, and Dr. Ida S. Scudder, the beloved physician.

Members of the Board and Young Woman’s Committee have attended the Conferences in the Eastern Classes, and their co-operative helpfulness has been felt throughout the year.

After the arrival in October of Rev. and Mrs. James A. Beattie we had a generous share of the latter’s time, which has been for the good of the work, and a renewed interest in our Arcot Mission.

In the summer time while we were all scattered, Mrs. George W. DuBois, for many years one of our managers, was called to the Home above. Her cheering personality will long be remembered by her associates in the work, for her interest was keen, her devotion unfaltering, in the cause dear to us all.

We shared with all denominations in the loss sustained by the sudden translation of Miss Doremus, the honored secretary of the Woman's Union Missionary Society. Loved and revered on both sides of the sea, her works praise her. She was a member well beloved in our communion.

After months of invalidism Mrs. William Williams entered into rest. Her name has headed the list of Honorary Vice-Presidents since the organization of the Board, and through all the years her interest was undiminished.

Across the seas Death's angel came with swiftness claiming Rev. Henry Honegger, a victim of cholera. Hearts have gone out in much sympathy to the wife so sorely stricken, but who loyally remains as a member of the Arcot Mission to help carry on the work. Another home in India has been bereaved, for the "little lad," Theodore, youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Scudder, after a brief illness, was taken to the Heavenly Home. Once again the Arcot Mission mourned when Dr. Gnanamoni passed from earth to heaven. He will long be remembered for his works' sake.

We at home and the Mission in India were saddened in March when Mrs. Jacob Chamberlain

"Passed through glory's morning gate,
And walked in Paradise."

We rejoice in recounting her years of lavish, abounding, self-forgetful service, remembering with peculiar tenderness that her last conscious message was the sending of a gift to the Woman's Board. The benign light of such a life, in which multitudes are walking with heroic faith, is a challenge to faithfulness, which must lie on the conscience of a later generation imperatively.

Dr. and Mrs. John H. Wyckoff rejoined the Arcot Mission in the autumn and while the last words of this report were being written the startling cable came from India announcing the death of Dr. Wyckoff, senior member of the Mission, and President of the Theological Seminary at Vellore. To the already depleted missionary force this bereavement is very great. Our hearts are moved with profound sympathy for Mrs. Wyckoff, the son and daughters, and also the Mission, for verily a "prince and great man has fallen in Israel."

To our list of Managers we have welcomed Mrs. Forrest W. Towl of Brooklyn, and as Honorary Vice-Presidents, Mrs. Henry J. Scudder, Mrs. George H. Blakeslee and Mrs. A. L. Stillwell.

Owing to removals some of the Classical Committees have necessarily resigned. Changes have been made in two, in order to conform to the Minutes of the Synod, as the new Classis of the Palisades has been formed of certain churches heretofore in the Classis of Bergen.

In all departments of our Board work, a spirit of mutual helpfulness prevails, each takes to herself the appointed task, and "works with a patience which is almost power," realizing day by day that "work is our business, its success is God's."

More of the societies have used the text-books this year, and there has been an increase in the number of study classes. If the old adage "knowledge is power" proves its truth, we should see a marked development in certain lines.

The goodly number who attended the birthday meeting in January had the inspiration of an address by Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery, and the double message of Miss Fung Hin Liu, who is an epitome of what Christian education means to the Chinese. January was a month replete with missionary privileges. To the Foreign Missions Conference at Garden City we sent our quota of delegates, who had the inestimable opportunity of hearing Dr. John R. Mott speak of his recent visit in Europe, also Rev. George Sherwood Eddy's account of the Evangelistic Campaign in China, which bore the stamp of a sequel to the Acts of the Apostles.

The Tri-ennial of Women's Foreign Mission Boards met likewise in the same month. The sessions were held in the Marble Collegiate Church, and were full of the stimulus of broadening fellowship. One of the speakers was Miss Eleanor MacDougall, president-elect of the new Union College for Women in Madras, in which our Board will coöperate.

The more than one hundred women and girls who attended the Northfield Summer School in July carried the enthusiasm to their respective churches and societies. The first season of Camp Eendracht, under Miss Cobb's efficient management, was successful beyond our highest hopes. The girls in such environment, with its interplay of study and recreation, caught the vision of life's best possibilities. One could not attend their good-night meeting on Sage Chapel steps without realizing those brief moment were prescient with deep feeling.

Our Board was represented at the Missionary Educational Conference at Schenectady, where attendance and interest were omens for increased usefulness on the part of those present.

THE TREASURY

During the year one bed has been endowed in the Mary Taber Schell Hospital which bears the name of Mrs. Anton A. Raven. Twenty-four life memberships have been given and the amount from these has been devoted to the support of the Girls' School, at Kolongsu, Amoy, China. Several legacies have been received bringing the total receipts to $88,074.55. While this sum may seem large and some of the gifts have been made with sacrifices known only to "the Master who sits over against the treasury," yet it is obvious to every one WHY we fall short of our desired amount.

A year ago Miss Bessie M. Ogsbury of the Amoy Mission was invalided home. We are glad that medical care and rest have proved beneficial. Dr. and Mrs. Snoke of the same Mission are also on furlough.

Miss Julia Moulton of Ferris Seminary, Japan, has been spending her furlough in Canada. Miss May Demarest has been obliged to return to this country on account of her father's health, and has been granted extended furlough. Mr. and Mrs. Hoffsommer, of the North Japan Mission, have recently returned to this country.

Miss Julia C. Scudder of the Arcot Mission returned to America by the way of Europe and arrived in the early autumn. Mrs. John Scudder and Dr. Ida S. Scudder spent the cold months in California, but have now been welcomed among us, and Dr. Scudder is eagerly awaited by many of the societies. For reasons of health Mrs. L. R. Scudder and Dr. Louisa H. Hart are returning by the Pacific. Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Calverley are at home from Arabia.

Miss Henrietta Wynkoop Drury arrived in India in February and has resumed her work at Madanapalle. Miss Nellie Zwemer had the pleasure of taking Miss Edna K. Beekman with her on her return to the Amoy Mission.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert Oltmans, returning to the North Japan Mission, were accompanied by their daughters, the Misses Janet and Evelyn, the latter's going being made possible by one of the generous-hearted members of the Board, who could not bear that one daughter should be left behind.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Walvoord and Mrs. H. V. S. Peeke have returned to the South Japan Mission. During the year we have accepted with regret because of ill health the resignation of Miss Jennie Buys from the latter Mission.

The one new appointment which has been made is announced with peculiar pleasure and tenderness, Miss Charlotte C. Wyckoff, who will join the Arcot Mission, India, which is the land of her birth.

As we close the year we grieve,

“For the work undone,
So many talents wasted
So few conquests won.”

“We linger yet, with backward gaze
To end our happy toil with praise,
The comfort that our hands have lent,
The treasure that our hearts have spent,
We lay, Our Father, on Thy shrine
The gladness ours, the glory Thine.”

Olivia A. Lawrence.
Corresponding Secretary.

While this report was in the printer's hand the awful tragedy of the “Lusitania” occurred. Once again we, with the Arcot Mission, mourn, for Rev. and Mrs. Beattie were on the doomed vessel. A cable announces that Mr. Beattie has been lost. In this sudden, pitiful sorrow our hearts are yearning with solicitous tenderness over the bereaved wife, so alone, in this fearful calamity. Mr. Beattie's loss to the Mission is great. "He was a good man and just," "one in whom there was no guile," "a disciple whom Jesus loved," and the work in and around Chittoor is his lasting memorial.

O. H. L.

REPORT OF THE ROOM SECRETARY

The report of the Room Secretary is virtually a report in absentio, since through the kindness of the Board she has been permitted to work at home this year and employ a substitute in the office. Miss Frances Davis, as Acting Room Secretary, has efficiently carried the correspondence and the detail work of Room 10, leaving the Room Secretary free for some campaigning in other lines.

Miss Davis reports for Room 10:

"To summarize the details of a necessary round of usual duties is difficult. The work in Room 10, however, has been carried on during the past year with an aim toward progress and efficiency.

"The correspondence has been impressive because it showed the need and desire for information and education on the part of the women of our church. The responses have aimed to give the personal touch in order to make the connection between the work in the local churches and that of the Board really understood. The increased sale of coronation pins has been especially noticeable and several large orders show that the pins are being worn by women of all denominations.

"The use of the 'Child in the Midst' has been faithfully advocated to visitors and correspondents, and leaflets and helps have been available for use with each chapter. Especially interesting has been the large number of requests for missionary dialogues and exercises. The literature published this year has not been adequate to meet the demand. Among the new leaflets, however, have been a list of our own publications recommended for use with 'The Child in the Midst'; China's Gateways, by Mrs. P. W. Pitcher; Doll Diplomacy, by Miss Charlotte C. Wyckoff; The Unlucky Star Baby, by Miss Josephine TeWinkle; Little Great Goddess and Peace, by Mrs. James A. Beattie, and a leaflet on Miss Winn's work, 'The Children's Missionary,' for use in raising funds in the Sunday Schools. Over $500 was received from this special effort. The Young Woman's Committee also prepared a leaflet for their work and Our Garden of Girls was written by Miss Bessie Ogsbury, to appeal to mothers and increase the Baby Roll contributions.

"The Thursday noon prayer meetings have been conducted as usual, with several meetings concentrated on different phases of inter-denominational missions."

Meantime the Room Secretary's activities have been in the line of committee and student secretary work, a little speech-making made possible by freedom from office routine, and a vigorous correspondence in Camp Eendracht.

The first assembly of Camp Eendracht at the Summer School for Women's Foreign Misisonary Societies at Northfield last July exceeded our brightest anticipations in numbers, in enthusiasm, in unity of spirit and in earnestness of purpose. To us was accorded the honor of presenting the first scene in the pageant illustrating the text-book, "The Child in the Midst." Though we took no high honors in field-day sports, we won the applause of the older camps by the picturesqueness of our Dutch costumes and our spirited songs and cheers. One criticism that might justly be made upon us is that we went into everything too vigorously and worked too hard, almost to the point of exhaustion. We have learned wisdom from that experience and will in future try to live more sanely.

Plans for this summer camp are well under way. We have changed our headquarters from Gould to Marquand Hall for the sake of securing a better location for our tents. Thus far only a dozen applications for membership have been received, but we know of others contemplated and we are praying as we did last year that God will send us just those girls for whom He has a message waiting at Northfield. Last year through the generosity of friends, Miss Kriel of South Africa was the guest of the Camp. This year we expect to entertain our own Dr. Ida Scudder.

Our college girls have been invited to make the Northfield Summer School a post-graduate course to Silver Bay. Miss Elizabeth Conklin, as the Board's representative at Silver Bay and as Traveling Secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement, has won the love and admiration of college students and has had opportunities to present to Reformed Church girls in the colleges their need of the Church and the Church's need of them. The Room Secretary, as Student Secretary of the Board, has been most courteously entertained by the Reformed Church students at Vassar, Wellesley, and Mt. Holyoke, and has talked with them informally about opportunities for service in the Church and its mission fields. An attempt to gain similar access to Smith and Barnard Colleges has so far been unsuccessful. We would make special acknowledgement here of the courtesy of a member of the Board, whose hospitality made the meeting at Vassar possible; also of the ready response of our busy student representatives to every appeal for their coöperation. There is now in preparation a special leaflet by two young women of the Young Woman's Committee and the Associate Members, the purpose of which is to remind our college students of their relation and obligation to the Church to which they owe their first allegiance, their first Alma Mater.

The Special Committee on the Mission Gleaner reports an active campaign for increased subscriptions to the magazine. Late in October letters were sent to 163 Gleaner committees and to 358 Auxiliaries that had no Gleaner committees, asking co-operation in the campaign and enclosing for their use the new folder:

"You need the Gleaner, the Gleaner needs you;
Try us a year and see if it's true."

To these 521 letters 25 answers were received. From October to May we published in each issue of the Gleaner a list of societies having 25 or more subscribers to the magazine. The friendly rivalry thus created forced our banner church, the Middle Collegiate of New York City, from 117 subscribers to 142, and brought two others, the Second Church of Somerville, and the North Church of Newark, to the 100 mark, and increased considerably the number of subscriptions in other societies. We do not know that it affected any societies not already interested. In the June Gleaner a list based on the proportion of subscribers to the number of members in the Auxiliary is expected to bring to light some smaller societies with a larger percentage of subscriptions than those hitherto reported.

A series of outlines prepared by a member of the Committee, Mrs. Mason, has been published monthly in the Gleaner to meet the demand for programs dealing with the work of our denomination.

At the suggestion of the Committee of Federation and Council charts of our publications are to be sent to the Woman's Congress of Missions of the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco. It is interesting to note that the Committee in charge of local arrangements for that Congress has adopted as its emblem the Coronation Pin originally put forth by our Board and subsequently recommended by both Federation and Council as the emblem of universal Christian womanhood. Let us hope that our "King's Highway Calendar for 1916," though temporary in its serviceability and limited to foreign missionary interests, may meet with the same wide favor among readers and students of the new text-book, "The King's Highway."

Another year of blessed service closes. "O say not it is one year less! It is one year more added to the possessions of the soul. We do not bid farewell to anything. We take it all with us, every experience through which we have passed. It has entered into us. It lives forever in the soul. Are we not richer, stronger, deeper, larger, because the stream of life with all its bitter and sweet has flowed through us?"

In the year that now opens before us we shall be building together, with new strength derived from old experiences, the Highway of the King.

It is for us (to level the mountains of difficulty) (to fill in the valleys of discouragement) to remove every stumbling-block and gather out the stones that the redeemed of the Lord may walk there, that the messengers of the Lord may run there, that over the highway our hands have builded the King Himself may come.

SEWING GUILD

Although engaged in the most peaceable of undertakings even the Sewing Guild felt the shadow of war when the ship bearing our consignments was overhauled on the high seas and convoyed to port by a man-of-war. The boxes were subjected to rigid inspection and weeks of delay before they were allowed to go forward to their destinations and at some of the stations the additional cost necessary to securing our gifts was considerable.

That the unexpected delay of the boxes meant great inconvenience as well as some anxiety to our missionaries is very evident from the messages that have come to us. From India a missionary writes: "Those precious boxes were a cause of considerable anxiety to us, all, this year. Several months before Christmas the linen room shelves were becoming very bare and as I went to search for needed articles I used to say to myself, 'Be patient. The Sewing Guild boxes are coming and we must hold out until then.' The baby frocks gave out first and we thought we had such a lot of them at the beginning of the year. To remedy this lack we went over our own wardrobes and weeded out anything that might properly and fittingly be converted into baby slips. I then sent for the Christian tailor whose chief specialty seems to be baby slips and such simple needle work and we soon had a fine pile of second hand baby dresses. These provided for the babies' immediate use but how to provide for the lack of sheets, pillow-cases, towels and other things now became a serious question and the hospital was full of cases requiring much clean linen. The purchase of a wash-machine helped us out, but you can imagine our joy when finally after long waiting the railway receipt came and the Sewing Guild boxes were actually deposited on the hospital verandah." From another Station: "We were obliged to practice the strictest economy to make our supplies hold out until the boxes came. We had carefully sorted over all the petticoats and skirts and ripped out one width from those which were extra full. These pieces were made into ravekas and small jackets. Then we bought some extra stout stuff in the local bazaar and made it into suits, and still the boxes did not come. Later one of our zenana pupils gave us a present of some money to buy clothing for some of our poor school children. Then the boxes came! They arrived just before Christmas. What could have been more opportune? We unpacked the boxes for our Christmas Eve entertainment and how we did enjoy it!"

Humor and pathos are very closely allied in this work as is shown in the following paragraphs: A missionary in charge of one of our schools with a student body of upward of 125 finds that one of her greatest problems is clothing the children and she writes that the very possibility of losing the gifts through the sinking of the ship on which they were being forwarded actually made her tremble. She adds, "The reason I have not asked for any white petticoats is that we have given up furnishing the girls with underskirts. We simply could not get enough. Those we had on hand are all being used either as outside skirts or to cut up and to make into jackets and you would laugh at some of our makeshifts. One of our other missionaries donated some colored skirts which proved to be too long for our girls, so the sewing classes cut them off and made the left-over strips into short petticoats by piecing three or four strips together. The results rivaled Joseph's famous coat of many colors and we have had many a laugh over their appearance, but the wearers have raised no objections."

From the humorous we drop into the pathetic as we read: "A short time ago one of our patients was leaving the hospital and remembered she had left something behind. I went back to the ward with her and she lifted the pillow of the bed she had been occupying and took from beneath it the picture card she had received the Sunday before, wrapped it carefully in a corner of her cloth and went away smiling and happy. And then we smile again at the scrap-book recently sent to us to be forwarded which was made by an old colored woman, who, unable to read, had pasted some of the pictures upside down, but she wanted to send something and who shall say it was not a perfect gift in the sight of her Lord?"

We are in receipt of a delightful little article entitled, "Mlle. Dolly of the Sewing Guild," which was written by one of our missionaries in Arabia, and I regret that our space permits of only a few quotations. "I have on hand about seventy-five dolls which must last me a year. Naturally I would gladly give every one of our little girls a doll to cuddle close to her mother-heart, but I think of several little folks who have had serious operations in the hospital and have stayed with us for some time and how the long hours and days were shortened and brightened by these little American ladies. There was little Mohammed Ali of six years who had an abdominal operation and had to lie flat on his back for three long weeks. His little dolly had a tape tied to her waist with the loose end pinned to the mattress so that she could not walk away from him. He belonged to the Bedouins of the desert, and after recovering carried his little American comrade to his desert home many miles away. Nearly every doll given away stands out in my memory as an individual case not quickly to be forgotten. Certainly they perform a peculiar, cheering ministry not to be ignored, for these poor Arab children possess little of joy-giving pleasures and playthings. And when I think, as I often do when looking at each dolly's particular style of dress, of the little girls at home who have made these clothes, I wonder in how many the little bud of missionary spirit will grow and thrive and in full-bloom go out a missionary and a true American lady."

If we could only follow our gifts and behold the great pleasure which is given the children of the Orient by the simplest articles it is not unlikely many of us would be amazed. As a missionary writes: "The joy which the doll babies bring into little lives is only understood and appreciated when we look into the little brown faces." "What a fine idea," exclaims another, "to send safety pins. I should not have thought to ask for them but I know the Chinese value them tremendously, indeed, the whole school knows it if one girl has one pin. Think of it!" And she naively adds, "The little mirrors will also make quite a hit."

It is in the reflex influence of the work that our joy comes. A Secretary tells us that even in cutting out and arranging pictures on the backs of calendars to be sent away the members of a Mission Band have had their interest aroused and their mental conceptions of missionary work greatly quickened and enlarged. One can readily believe that this work gets a strong hold on the members of our societies when we glance at the large number of articles prepared and shipped to the foreign fields. Nearly 1,300 petticoats, 850 jackets, 800 baby slips and baby blankets, over 700 sheets, 650 pillow-cases, 1,526 towels, nearly 500 work bags, 2,626 dolls and hundreds of other articles represent our work of the last year, and this splendid contribution is a silent but powerful tribute to the unflagging interest of the Auxiliaries in this work. Another evidence of the growth of our work is shown by the fact that we found it necessary to reorganize our methods of dividing and repacking the gifts, and this we were able to accomplish with the aid of a few faithful and loyal workers. In this connection may we note a little experience which came to us at the close of a weary day in packing? One of our Auxiliaries had sent in, among other things, a box labelled "Comfort Powders," which had caused some speculation in the Committee as to what these really were and where they should be sent. The name sounded good and just then we were in a state of mind and body to appreciate them, so we anticipated the heathen in their joys by then and there opening the box and each taking one of the powders to her own comfort. They proved to be verses of Scripture, and the first one taken out read: "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord," and this proved to be a real comfort for it provoked a hearty laugh and broke the strain of the day's weariness. There were other comfort powders also, precious promises which lent wings of inspiration to our thought and made us feel anew that it was the Lord's own work which we had been doing and in which we had exhausted ourselves.

In bringing our report to a close we use the words of gratitude of one of our missionaries in India. "We are more than grateful that the boxes came to us safely in spite of the dreadful war, and I think we appreciate them all the more owing to the fact that they might not have come at all. And once more we thank you with all our hearts for your loving, unselfish labor; and recognizing how much thought and labor has gone into the gifts we shall try to use them very carefully and wisely and well. Many a time, in handing out a scrap-book or a garment, I say to the people here, 'Do you see how carefully they are made? Some one has worked very hard to make this so nicely for you, and why do you suppose she did it? It was because the love of God was in her heart and she wanted to help you. Have you ever heard of any Hindus in this country who went to so much trouble to please people of another country because they were trying to carry out the wishes of their gods?' And a look of wonderment and awe will come into their faces as they say, 'No, it is only the people of the Christian country who do such things.'"

Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON YOUNG WOMAN'S WORK

In submitting this, the fourteenth annual report of the Committee on Young Woman's Work, the chairman of that committee hopes to pass on to the Woman's Board and to the Young Woman's Societies the note of earnest and enthusiastic optimism that has dominated the work of the Committee during the past year, and which is leading it to plan new phases of work for the coming one.

Let us take the events of the year chronologically. The beginning of the Board year, May first, saw the plans for the first season of Camp Eendracht well launched, with Miss E. P. Cobb as the Camp Leader. Later in the month came an Acquaintance Party in the Assembly Room of the Reformed Church Building, when those who had enrolled for the Northfield Conference under Camp Eendracht had an opportunity to meet each other. The effort to thus provide for a denominational group had a two-fold result; it increased the attendance of young women at that particular conference, and it created a spirit of good fellowship that added greatly to the other influences of the week.

Some changes in the membership of the Committee have occurred. Miss Elizabeth Conklin, who for several years was Classical Committee for Y. W. Work in Newark Classis, has been appointed on the Committee. Five new names were added: Miss Ida Jelleme, of Passaic; Miss Anita Von Schlieder, Hackensack; Miss Gertrude Bruyn, Kingston; Miss Sarah Cowles, Jersey City; Miss Katharine Lyon, of New York City. Because of ill health, Miss Amy L. Abel was compelled to resign, and shortly after the holidays came the news of the sudden death of Miss S. Marie Suydam. Although a member of the Committee but a few months, her rare spirit of consecration and her ability had made her a valuable addition to our number; we here record our tribute of appreciation of her strong personality, and our sympathy with those of her immediate home circle in their bereavement.

The change in the day of the meeting from Wednesday to Saturday, tried this year as an experiment, has proven most satisfactory and has given us a larger average attendance than we have ever had heretofore.

So much for the Committee itself; what of its work for the Board and for the Young Woman's Societies? For the Board, the chairman of the Committee has attended all the regular meetings of the Board, and at each one has reported for the Committee; twice during the year the entire Committee has been invited to Board meetings, and on the occasion of the Birthday Reception assisted by serving as choir and ushers. We have endeavored to supply societies with information concerning the work especially assigned to them by the Board; for this purpose a card catalogue of all kinds of young women's societies is kept, recording their activities, gifts, and secretaries' addresses. A new leaflet was prepared, stating the specific objects to which the gifts of Young Woman's Societies are assigned, and a copy of the same, accompanied by a letter from the chairman of the Committee, asking for coöperation, was sent to every listed society.

A meeting of denominational leaders was held in January to discuss the advisability of holding a second Interdenominational Conference for Young Women; it was decided to hold such a conference, but to hold it in the fall, rather than at the end of the spring season. This leader's group has held four meetings, when problems of mutual interest were discussed, and plans and program for the fall conference were formulated.

Our Denominational Conference and Northfield Rally was held in the chapel of the Marble Collegiate Church on Saturday, March 6th. At that time the needs of our own denominational work and its claim upon the attention of our young women were plainly and urgently presented.

A number of new societies have been added to our list this year. There have been several requests for speakers, and others for leaflets and information; these requests have been promptly attended to. The chairman has carried on an active correspondence with individuals in the three Eastern Synods, and has kept in touch with the work in the Synod of Chicago through the vice-chairman there.

With the close of the year came the preparation and mailing of a letter to accompany the folder announcing the second season of Camp Eendracht at Northfield, July eighth to fifteenth, and the appointment of some committees to assist the camp leader at that time.

The treasurer of the Board makes the following accounting to the credit of the Young Women's Societies:

BUDGET

For Miss Hospers' salary.....	$700.00
“ Kagoshima	420.00
“ Tong An	775.00
“ Tindivanum	170.00
Balance on Appropriations	420.08
For other objects	548.04
“ Arabia	175.00
Total	$3,208.12

The year has been marked by growth in numbers, in interest, in interdenominational coöperation, in outlook, in gifts, and in gratitude that the Committee has been permitted to do its small share in caring for the home base. It is our hope to render a greater measure of service during the coming year, and if we ask for further equipment it will be because of an earnest conviction that any effort we may make in the line of advance will be repaid many fold..

Respectfully submitted.

ALICE POOL,
Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON YOUNG WOMAN'S WORK PARTICULAR SYNOD OF CHICAGO

The Committee on Young Woman's Work at the completion of another year's work submit their annual report.

There have been no changes in the membership of the Committee. Several new names have been added to our list of representatives.

The two regular meetings at which the classical committees and representatives meet with us were well attended and helpful. At the April meeting we had the pleasure of having with us Miss Jennie Buys, who told us about the work among the factory girls at Kagoshima, Japan, and the needs of these, our sisters, were made very real. We also had read a most interesting letter from Miss Hendrine Hospers, giving us vivid pictures of her experiences in Japan.

From the reports sent by the girls who serve as Classical Committees we give the following sums contributed:

Classis of Grand River.....	$165.00
“ “ Holland	226.95
“ “ Michigan	100.00
“ “ Pella	80.00
“ “ Wisconsin	108.55

Of this sum $498.50 was given for the work assigned us and $182 for other objects. Seven societies sent boxes to mission fields.

We regret not getting reports from all the classes, but we will renew our efforts and trust we may be able next year to record gifts from all.

Another year's work is before us. May it be one of earnest endeavor and loving service, and we shall realize that “Work that is done for God alone

Hath an unceasing guerdon of delight.”

Respectfully submitted,

HENRIETTA ZWEMER,
Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

The Missionary Education Campaign for the year was a united endeavor in which practically all the Missionary Boards of all evangelical denominations coöperated. This provided for home as well as foreign missions. Instead of sending out two sets of literature, the churches were circularized with copies of the united program entitled "Christ for Every Life and All of Life." An abundance of literature was prepared covering all departments of the life of the church; programs for the Sunday-school and young people's societies, suggestions for Thanksgiving and Christmas and mission study books to cover the different ages. The attention of pastors, Sunday-school leaders and young people's societies was called to the campaign early in the year. The books on Home Missions recommended were "The New Home Missions," by H. Paul Douglas; "In Red Man's Land," by Francis E. Leupp, and "The American Indian on the New Trail." Owing to the character of the book on home missions, comparatively few classes were organized in comparison with former years. There was a large demand, however, for the Indian books, showing that our church is wide awake to this important question.

Special effort was made by the Department to secure the observance of Christian Endeavor week throughout our church. The plans of the United Society of Christian Endeavor were brought to the attention of our own Endeavor Societies with suggestions for carrying them into effect. The large demand for printed literature from all parts of our church indicated a widespread interest among our young people.

The Department has continued the publication of the "Quarterly Missionary Lesson Leaflet." Beginning with the year 1915, however, we inaugurated a new series of biographical studies covering the pioneer missionaries of our Reformed Church. The program for the year will include the lives of Rev. Dr. Jacob Chamberlain, Rev. Dr. Walter C. Roe, Mrs. J. V. N. Talmage and Rev. Frederick Zwemer, our first classical missionary. In this new departure we have recognized the appealing force of biography to boys and girls. The first lesson on the life of Dr. Chamberlain appeared in March. There was unusual interest both in the demands for the leaflet and the supplemental material as well as illustrative material for different grades.

In addition to these quarterly lessons, the Secretary is suggesting a series of missionary incidents for each Sunday preceding Review Sunday. These are published in the Mission Field from month to month. The object is to take five minutes of the opening exercises each Sunday for the presentation of the incident. In this way missions is becoming a normal part of the life of many of our Sunday-schools. As far as possible, the incidents center around the life of the people among whom the missionary lived and labored. We are indebted to the publishers of "De Hope," "The Leader" and "The Intelligencer" for assistance in the dissemination of this material by publishing the same from time to time in their respective issues.

A most successful Missionary Education Conference was held in the First Church of Schenectady on February 11th, 1915. The participants were Mr. R. E. Diffendorfer, Rev. Morris W. Ehnes, Rev. Clayton J. Potter, Mrs. Jared W. Scudder, Mr. William T. Demarest, Mrs. John S. Allen, Miss O. H. Lawrence, Rev. E. W. Miller, D.D., and the Secretary. The attendance exceeded our expectation; over fifty churches were represented. Supper was served by the ladies of the First Church. The conference stimulated missionary interest all along the line.

At the last meeting of the Committee, it was decided to change the name of the Department in order to define more clearly its purpose and at the same time to bring it into harmony with similar Departments connected with other Missionary Boards. Beginning May 1st, therefore, we shall be known as the Department of Missionary Education, of the Missionary Boards of the Reformed Church in America.

There has been the usual amount of office detail, correspondence, visitation of churches, Sunday-schools and young people's societies.

H. A. KINPORTS.

BABY ROLL

Another year has been added to the "Baby Roll," and during this year one hundred and ninety-one new names have been added to the membership list, making it the best year we have had since 1909. As we clasp our Baby Chain together to-day, we find there are four thousand and forty-five links. This means that four thousand and forty-five children in our denomination have given or are still giving their little mite toward the extension of Christ's Kingdom, by helping to support the Children's Home at Amoy, China.

During this year, as in every other year, the chain has been broken and some links have dropped out. They have gone to join the Roll up yonder, the Master called them! He had need of these sweet flowers and claimed them for His own. Sorrowing hearts, wipe the tear-drops from your eyes, and let the smile of hope and joy gladden your faces, as you look up and see, through faith, your little ones "Safe in the arms of Jesus" safe in His loving care. When these breaks come to my notice, I never fail to send a letter of sympathy, and I know they are greatly appreciated.

A gift of $5.00 was sent recently in memory of one dear little boy. Four new societies have taken up the "Baby Roll" work this year, among them the First Reformed of Roseland, Chicago, and to-day this Society holds the banner. The Society of Bethany Church, Grand Rapids, is a very close second. One great feature of these societies, and that of the Middle Collegiate Church, is that with almost every name the full payment of $1.00 is sent. This simplifies matters so greatly that I should like to urge its being done whenever it is possible. One Society has withdrawn this year, that in connection with the Church at Metuchen, N. J. There have been quite a few inquiries in regard to mite boxes, and a request from one of the Holland Churches for fifty to be used at its yearly meeting. A number of leaflets have been sent for; requests have come for both the Pity Little Children's Home and Of Such is the Kingdom of Heaven. Just here I am delighted to report a new leaflet, Our Garden of Girls, by Miss Bessie M. Ogsbury, which I am sure will be greatly enjoyed and heartily welcomed by our Secretaries who are constantly asking for "something new" in Baby Roll literature. Most of these requests come from our Western Churches. Some excellent suggestions are given in the May GLEANER, under the heading of "Baby Day," which should be hailed with gladness, and prove a great help in arranging a program where yearly meetings are held.

An extra effort has been made this year to arouse more interest and enthusiasm in connection with this branch of children's work, and over six hundred letters have been sent out, explaining the work, stating the use to which the money is put, and urging the pastors (to whom these letters were sent) to appoint some capable person in their congregation to look into the matter closely and if possible organize a Baby Roll in their churches. We hope this request will be heeded and good results follow in the near future, or even after many days.

Let us sow the seed in the springtime of these little lives with earnest prayer, trusting that when the harvesting comes the fruit may be rich and full to overflowing.

Little "Buds of Promise" scattered here and there,
Shedding out your fragrance redolent and rare,
As your petals open in the glad sunshine,
May your influence savor of a life Divine.

MRS. HAMILTON V. MEEKS,
Secretary.

To the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions:

The Committee appointed by the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions, R. C. A., to examine the accounts of the Treasurer of the Board for the year ending April 30, 1915, reports that it has made an examination and audit of all books and records of the Treasurer of your Board for the period from May 1, 1914, to April 30, 1915, and submits the accompanying Balance Sheet as a result thereof.

It has proved the accuracy of all of the cash deposits and disbursements and verified the amounts on deposit in banks.

It has examined and accounted for all of the securities held as investments and finds the same to be correct as stated.

It certifies that the attached Balance Sheet, showing all of the Assets and Liabilities, is in accord with the Treasurer's books and records, and is in our judgment correct in every way.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. L. BROWER,
JOHN F. CHAMBERS,

Auditing Committee.

Dated, New York, May 19, 1915.

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE 1. The Association shall be called the "Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of the Reformed Church in America," and its central point of operation shall be in the City of New York.

ART. 2. Its object shall be to extend and promote the work of Foreign Missions among the women and children of heathen lands; and to receive and disburse all money contributed to this Society. To the furtherance of this end, it shall also endeavor to organize similar organizations in all Reformed Churches, and these Associations shall bear the name of Auxiliary Societies to the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of the Reformed Church in America, and shall report their work to this Board at such times as the By-Laws may direct.

ART. 3. Any person paying one dollar annually, through an auxiliary, or directly to the treasurer, shall become a member of this Association. The payment of twenty-five dollars by one person at one time shall constitute a Life Membership.

ART. 4. The business of the Board shall be conducted by thirty Managers, each of whom shall be a member of an auxiliary society. They shall be elected annually by the members of the Board who may be present at the annual meeting and shall organize on the first Tuesday after their election, by selecting from their number a president, two vice-presidents, a recording secretary, two or more corresponding secretaries and a treasurer, and such other officers as may be deemed necessary. They shall have the power to elect twelve or more honorary vice-presidents, and to appoint corresponding members when the object of the Board can be promoted thereby; they shall also have authority to fill vacancies occurring in their body during the year.

ART. 5. There shall be an Executive Committee composed of the officers and two other Managers to be elected annually. The Editor of the Gleaner, or of any other publication issued by the Board shall also be, ex-officio, a member of Executive Committee. The Committee shall have power to transact such business as may require attention in the intervals between the stated meetings of the Managers. Five members shall constitute a quorum.

ART. 6. The annual meeting of the Board shall be held on the second Tuesday in May, at which time the Managers shall report to the Association the operations, the conditions and prospects thereof, and an election shall be made of Managers for the ensuing year.

ART. 7. A special meeting of the Board may be called at any time by the President upon the request of the Managers.

ART. 8. This Constitution may be altered at any regular meeting of the Board, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, notice of the intended alteration having been given at a previous meeting.

CONSTITUTION FOR AUXILIARIES OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN AMERICA

The following Constitution is recommended for adoption. It can be modified and adapted to the circumstances of different localities.

ARTICLE 1. The Society shall be called _____ of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of the Reformed Church in America.

ART. 2. Its object shall be to aid the Board in sending out and maintaining Female Missionaries, Bible-Readers and Teachers, who shall work among heathen women and children.

ART. 3. Any person may become a member of this Society by the payment of _____ annually.

ART. 4. The officers of this Society shall be a President, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be elected annually.

ART. 5. The duty of these officers shall be as follows:

The President shall preside at all meetings, and have a general oversight of the work of the Society.

The Secretary shall give notice of meetings, shall record the minutes of each session, and shall prepare the Annual Report. It shall also be her duty to transmit to the Woman's Board the names of the officers of this Auxiliary, a report of its proceedings and condition, whenever necessary, and the Annual Report with that of the Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall report the state of the treasury at every meeting, and shall remit the funds obtained, at least once a year, on or before the tenth day of April, to the Treasurer of the Woman's Board.

ART. 6. This Society shall hold regular meetings on the _____, and an annual meeting on the _____, to receive and adopt the Annual Report and to elect officers.
